

Submitted by Keith Hall 'After Seth' Project 2008

Dale Cottage, Dale End

This cottage was created between October 1983 and March 1984. The building had been part of the lead smelting works which closed c.1900. Eventually it became Bernard Walker's joiners shop and remained empty for several years. As can be seen in the photographs there was considerable demolition, reconstruction and extension to produce an acceptable modern dwelling.

