1. 201057 Lance Corporal Clement Pierce Dix 4th (Hallamshire) Battalion York and Lancs. Regiment. Clem Dix was living at 33 Clinton Place, Sheffield when he enlisted in November 1914. The following year he married Mabel Andrew in Ecclesfield. His military record shows that he died in hospital in Boulogne on 18th of March 1917 of wounds received in action. He is commemorated on the Boulogne Easter Cemetery. His widow by then was living in Ecclesfield. A later report states the Clem had lived at Moorbrook View, Bradwell.
2. WR279526 Sapper Johnson Evans Royal Engineers. Two Johnson Evans are listed as living in Bradwell in 1911 they were uncle and nephew and were both residing with father and grandparents Hiram and Emma respectively. Johnson Jnr's parent William and Mary Matilda were also living in Bradwell at Hollowgate. It seems likely that it was uncle Johnson who was visiting home on leave. In 1911 Johnson was aged 25 and working as a railway labourer. When Johnson enlisted at the end of 1915 he was living in Smalldale. With his background he joined the Railway Troops of the Royal Engineers as a platelayer. By the end of 1916 Johnson had been wounded and was in hospital in Boulogne and did not return to active service until January 1918. He married Eleanor Haigh in Rotherham in 1924 and was still living there when he died in 1961.
3. 203848 Private Percy Robert Hallam Eyre 2nd/6th Battalion Notts & Derby (Sherwood Foresters) Regiment. Percy was a Stocksbridge-born farmer living with his wife Harriett Ann (née Gibbon) at Hill Head in 1911. He enlisted at the age of 34 at the end of 1915. He was posted in France for most of 1917; was home for Christmas that year and was back in France in January 1918. Two months later he was killed in action and is remembered at the Arras Memorial in France.
4. 38505 Second Air Mechanic (Rigger) Jesse Eyre Royal Flying Corps. 21-Year old Jesse was living with his parents Henry and Mary Eyre at Hope House, Brough in 1911. His occupation was given as a joiner and wheelwright working from home. He appears to have joined the army 'for the duration' on 21st July 1916 but switched to the Royal Flying Corps (RFC) on the same day. His home leave was granted immediately. The next record to be found seems to be his transport back to England on the Hospital Ship HMHS Jan Breydel in May 1918. He was transferred to the RAF reserve (the RFC became the RAF in 1918) at Shrewsbury in March 1919 as Rigger and Carpenter. He was discharged home to Brough in May 1920.
5. Lieutenant Alec Ewart Glassey 15th (Service Battalion) Highland Light Infantry. In the 1911 census Normanton born 23 year old Alec was living in Sheffield with his wife Mary Eleanor. Alec's profession was stated to be Professor of Elocution. By the start of the war Alec and Mary were living on the Hills. There are numerous newspaper cuttings describing the concerts given by both for a wide range of charities. In October 1916 shortly after his visit home Alec was back in France when his wife received a message that he was in hospital suffering from shell shock. Later in the war after he had returned to the front he was in hospital once more this time suffering from gas inhalation. But he survived and died in Poole, Dorset in 1970 having lived for some time in Jamaica.
